Last Mile

While the WIDTH is towards the finishing line, exchanged visits are getting more interesting and active. In June, two visitors, Dr. Liting Guo, and Dr. Xiuzhi Yang, both associate Professors from Fuzhou University, China, arrived at Middlesex University, UK, embarking a month-long visit.

Mr. Tang (left), Mr. Guo (middle) and Dr. Zheng, a Post-doc at Computer Science Department, Middlesex University.

The visitors have enjoyed the tour of Middlesex University, nearby typical English pub, and campus canteen. It is anticipated their visits will result in a number of fruitful research outcomes.

Enjoy the presentation.

Tour of research labs in Middlesex University.

Interesting discussion.

Outreach

In July 2014, a group of Chinese delegates from China National Space Administration Agency (CNSA) visited Middlesex University in an attempt to collaborate in the future on image processing field. They has expressed real interests in the work that is being carried out in WIDTH and established links with WIDTH partner at the UK.

Get together.
